Why Khajuraho?

UNESCO World Heritage Site

The magnificent Khajuraho temple complex dates back to 950–1050 AD, representing one of India's most significant architectural treasures and cultural landmarks.

Historic Precedent

KIFF has the distinction of being hosted at the oldest heritage site globally to welcome an international film festival, creating a truly unique cinematic experience.

Perfect Timing

December marks the peak foreign tourist presence, with over 80% of foreign arrivals visiting during this period, maximizing international exposure and participation.

Economic Impact

Film-induced tourism is rapidly transforming the local economy while elevating global recognition of this cultural treasure.

GROWTH TRAJECTORY:

Khajuraho International Film Festival : *Started in 2015, now an internationally recognized platform

- Key objectives:

11th Khajuraho International Film Festival (KIFF).

Art and cultural exchange for world peace

KIFF
2025

Promoting Cultural Exchange Through Films

Global Dialogue

Facilitating meaningful conversations on pressing social, cultural, and global issues through the universal language of cinema.

Artistic Collaborations

Fostering cross-cultural creative partnerships that transcend borders and traditional boundaries.

Economic Opportunities

Creating pathways for international co-productions and substantial economic development through cultural exchange.

Cultural Diplomacy

Positioning cinema as a powerful tool for international understanding and cooperation.

The Magic of Khajuraho

Beyond the silver screen, KIFF offers sponsors and attendees an immersive experience in one of India's most spectacular cultural landscapes. The Khajuraho temple complex represents the pinnacle of medieval Indian architectural achievement.

These magnificent temples, adorned with intricate sculptures and carvings, create an atmosphere where art transcends time—making it the perfect backdrop for a celebration of contemporary cinema.

December in Khajuraho offers pleasant weather conditions ideal for outdoor screenings and events, with comfortable daytime temperatures and cool evenings perfect for al fresco gatherings.

"The setting of ancient temples illuminated under starry skies while contemporary films play creates a magical dialogue between past and present artistic expressions."

— International Film Critics Association

Film Tourism: The KIFF Effect

Film Festival

KIFF brings international attention to Khajuraho's cultural heritage through the universal language of cinema.

Location Spotlight

Filmmakers discover Khajuraho as a potential shooting location, featuring it in future productions.

Audience Discovery

Global audiences see Khajuraho on screen, sparking interest in visiting the destination firsthand.

Tourism Growth

Visitor numbers increase, creating economic opportunities and supporting cultural preservation.

This virtuous cycle demonstrates how cultural events like KIFF can drive sustainable tourism development while preserving heritage. Sponsors become integral to this positive transformation, associating their brands with both cultural celebration and economic development.

Empowering Youth – Students, Volunteers & Workshop Pods

Student Engagement

- Special access for film and media students from across India.
- Discounted delegate passes and student film screenings.
- Opportunity to network with global filmmakers and industry leaders.

Volunteers at KIFF

- 100+ young volunteers supporting logistics, guest relations, media, and programming.
- Training sessions in event management, cultural diplomacy, and hospitality.
- Certificates of participation endorsed by KIFF – valuable for resumes and careers.

Workshop Pods

- Hands-on sessions on filmmaking, acting, scriptwriting, cinematography, editing, and OTT content creation.
- Mentorship from Bollywood actors, directors, and international experts.
- Interactive pods for students to present their short films, ideas, and pitches.

🌟 Impact: This initiative creates a learning hub within KIFF, nurturing the next generation of filmmakers while giving sponsors visibility among India's most dynamic youth audience.

Stakeholders & Partners

Testimonials & Past Highlights

"The Khajuraho International Film Festival represents a perfect marriage of India's cultural heritage and contemporary artistic expression. It's unlike any festival experience in the world."

— Anupam Kher, Celebrated Actor & Former FTII Chairman

"KIFF creates magical moments where ancient art forms meet modern storytelling. The temples provide an atmosphere that transforms how we experience cinema."

— Jackie Shroff, Veteran Bollywood Actor

"Khajuraho International Film Festival is not just about cinema—it is about bringing people, stories, and culture together. I feel proud to see how this festival has grown into a true celebration of Indian creativity on a global stage."

— Govinda, Celebrated Actor

"Khajuraho is a land of stories carved in stone, and KIFF brings those stories alive through cinema. That's why I called it 'Tiger, Temples, and Tapra Talkies'—because it truly captures the raw energy, heritage, and inclusivity of India. This festival is more than an event; it's a movement of art and culture."

— Shekhar Kapoor, Director

Testimonials & Past Highlights

"Cinema is a reflection of our society, and festivals like KIFF ensure that both mainstream and meaningful stories get the platform they deserve. Khajuraho is a perfect backdrop for this creative exchange."

— Asha Parekh, Celebrated Actress

"Khajuraho International Film Festival beautifully showcases the spirit of India—our stories, our talent, and our culture. Being part of this journey feels like nurturing the next generation of cinema and artists."

— Jaya Prada Veteran Bollywood Actress

"For me, cinema has always been about emotion and connection. KIFF creates that magical bridge between heritage and storytelling, making Khajuraho a place where history and art meet the future of films."

— Tanuja, Celebrated Actress

Media Impact

Previous editions have generated extensive positive coverage across leading media platforms, establishing KIFF as a cultural phenomenon worthy of global attention.

Tapra Talkies: Cinema for All

One of KIFF's most celebrated initiatives is Tapra Talkies—a traveling cinema that brings the magic of film to the doorsteps of rural communities throughout Bundelkhand.

For the 2025 edition, we're expanding this program with:
Dedicated educational screenings for children
Local storytelling workshops
Mobile filmmaking classes using smartphone technology
Village-produced short films screening at the main festival

This initiative offers sponsors a unique opportunity to connect with rural audiences while supporting meaningful social impact—truly cinema that changes lives.
